

NLZW Entry Criteria Season 2020-2021

NATIONAL SQUAD ATHLETES

The NLZW is available to train for all National Squad Elite, U23 and Junior athletes. These athletes will be given a priority.

Long-distance/cross triathlon/duathlon cadres will be considered, through a written request, based on appropriate levels of performance and availability of space at the NLZW.

INTERNATIONAL SQUAD ATHLETES

International athletes – elite, U23 and junior that compete for their country at Major Championships/Games; have won medals at Major Championships; compete at an appropriate level of performance at WTS/World Cup races can train at the NLZW. This training can be annually or for agreed training period.

This will be confirmed and agreed by the Performance Director, The National Coach Elite, U23 and Junior.

These athletes must be able to contribute to the training environment of the NLZW and Swiss Triathlon.

REGIONAL SQUAD ATHLETES

Regional Cadre athletes will be considered, through a written request, based on appropriate levels of performance and availability of space at the NLZW.

- This request to train, if successful will be for 12 months to enable a development change and an improvement in performance.
- Performance targets will be identified and agreed for swim, bike and run, whilst using the Cadre tests, National League results and International performances, including the Mixed Team Relay.

All notes of interest, in writing to train at the NLZW for this season should be received by the 31.08.20. Emails should be sent to gordon.crawford@swisstriathlon.ch

The decisions for training at the NLZW will be made by the Performance Director, Swiss Triathlon; the National Coach Elite/U23; the Junior National Coach and in consultation with personal coaches.
